Operating Officer of Autumn Leaves. “It’s a reflection of the hard work and dedication of the staff at each community.”

Now in their second year, the Best of 2015 Awards celebrate the best of the best in American senior care and are only given to communities and agencies that have consistently received outstanding feedback from families on the SeniorAdvisor.com website. To qualify for a SeniorAdvisor.com Best of 2015 Award, winners must have an average overall rating of at least 4.5 stars out of 5 and a minimum number of online reviews.

Nearly 900 assisted living, in-home care, and other senior housing providers across the United States were recognized this year. According to a joint study conducted in May 2014 by SeniorAdvisor.com and A Place For Mom, an online senior care referral service, online reviews have a profound impact on the purchasing behavior of consumers looking for senior care.

“We launched SeniorAdvisor.com ... to give families a tool to identify the businesses that will take great care of their loved ones,” said Eric Seifert, President of SeniorAdvisor.com. “We’re thrilled to have the opportunity to thank companies and professionals who commit to providing exceptional service to the loved ones we entrust in their care.”
